"If there is no Resurrection but Christ is dead, one cannot believe either in the Goodness of God or the goodness of man. But if He Who took the worst the world had to offer and conquered it, then evil shall never be victorious again." —Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

The Risen Jesus by Bishop Robert Barron

"The risen Christ makes two basic moves: he shows his wounds and speaks a word of peace. In so doing, he reminds us of our sins and he assures us of his forgiveness. In this a new world opens up, for we know that nothing can finally separate us from the love of God—even the act of killing God!"

Communion Antiphon:

"The disciples recognized the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread, alleluia." Luke 24:35

"God prefers a loving sinner to a loveless "saint." Love can be trained; pride cannot. The man who thinks that he knows will rarely find truth; the man who knows he is a miserable, unhappy sinner, like the woman at the well, is closer to peace, joy and salvation than he knows." - Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, "Life of Christ"

April 15: Third Sunday of Easter

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 / 1 Jn 2:1-5a / Lk 24:35-48

"Peace be with you." So often we do not feel the peace of Christ... we are concerned and anxious about many things. We see the suffering in the world and it might bring us doubt. But Jesus is still with us. He shows us the wounds in his hands and feet, the signs of his suffering, even in his glorified body. If we join our suffering to his, it bears fruit in our world. There is a beautiful prayer called the Anima Christi which has the line, "within your wounds hide us." We are called to soothe the wounds of Christ, by soothing the wounds of our brothers and sisters, to help relieve their suffering of pain, loneliness and rejection, and so to bring the peace of Christ into our wounded world, that others may come to believe.

Environmental Stewardship

Jesus gives us his peace in today's Gospel. Peace comes when we share with others what we have. "Changes in lifestyle based on traditional moral virtues can ease the way to a sustainable and equitable world economy in which sacrifice will no longer be an unpopular concept. For many of us, a life less focused on material gain may remind us that we are more than what we have." U.S. Catholic Bishops. What change in my lifestyle could I do today that would bring about peace?

Resurrection and Metanoia by Bishop Robert Barron

The readings for today effect a correlation between the resurrection of Jesus and conversion. The biblical word for conversion is "metanoia" which has the sense of "going beyond the mind that you have." What would it be like to move from a death-haunted consciousness to resurrection-haunted one? It would involve a conversion.

"Why did Our Blessed Lord use bread and wine as the elements of this Memorial? First of all, because no two substances in nature better symbolize unity than bread and wine. As bread is made from a multiplicity of grains of wheat, and wine is made from a multiplicity of grapes, so the many who believe are one in Christ. Second, no two substances in nature have to suffer more to become what they are than bread and wine. Wheat has to pass through the rigors of winter, be ground beneath the Calvary of a mill, and then subjected to purging fire before it can become bread. Grapes in their turn must be subjected to the Gethsemane of a wine press and have their life crushed from them to become wine. Thus, do they symbolize the Passion and Sufferings of Christ, and the condition of Salvation, for Our Lord said unless we die to ourselves we cannot live in Him. A third reason is that there are no two substances in nature which have more traditionally nourished man than bread and wine. In bringing these elements to the altar, men are equivalently bringing themselves. When bread and wine are taken or consumed, they are changed into man's body and blood. But when He took bread and wine, He changed them into Himself."
— Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, "Life of Christ"
