February 11: Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lv 13:1-2, 44-46 / 1 Cor 10:31-11:1 / Mk 1:40-45

Are you amazed at the courage of the leper in today's Gospel? Lepers were excluded from the community, they were to "dwell apart", as the first reading tells us. Yet this leper dared to approach Jesus. People must have been shocked at his approach and even more shocked at the fact that Jesus touched him. What about us? Are we afraid to approach Jesus with our deformities, with our sins? For it is not leprosy that separates us from the body of Christ, but rather our sins. Can we approach Jesus through the priest in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and say with the leper "if you wish, you can make clean." The season of Lent begins this coming Wednesday with Ash Wednesday. Let us turn to the Lord and allow him to make us clean by taking away our sins that we too may rejoice and sing his praises.

Church in Central/Eastern Europe Collection

On Ash Wednesday, Feb. 14, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Through this collection, we support the Church in over 25 nations still struggling to recover from the oppression of communist rule. Funds from this collection support pastoral care, catechesis, building renovations, and seminary formation. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region. As you prepare for Lent, please consider how you can support the collection next week. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/ccee.
